Letter sealing-wax and initial seals at W. H. Smith's.

Nogales has the finest all the year-round climate on earth.

Have you seen that Oriental perfumery at W. H. Smith's?

This morning Pedro Cosca and bride arrived in the city from Guaymas.

Attend the Board of Trade meeting. You can't afford to keep away.

Marsh sells corrugated iron, both painted and galvanized. Write for prices.

Dr. and Mrs. Mabry have returned from the coast. Monday they went to Imuris.

Great annual sale is now on at The Red House. Great Bargains in all departments.

Charley Hardy went to Tucson to help the Democrats win the election, last Tuesday.

Last night Chairman Ashburn of the Board of Supervisors came down from his big ranch.

Lost: Bunch of three keys. Leave at First National Bank of Nogales and get liberal reward.

Mrs. Harry Greenwell, of the Greenwell-Arizona Mining Company, has gone east to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wise, accompanied by Mrs. Sykes, mother of Mrs. Wise, visited the city yesterday in the Wise auto.

W. H. Smith is going to have some nice calendars for 1911. Go in and leave your address with him so he can keep one for you.

The West Coast Mexican Oil Company has purchased a two seated wagon for the use of Manager Stevens and Engineer Cunningham.

Colonel and Mrs. J. W. Partridge left this morning for Oro Blanco, where the Colonel and Mr. E. E. Noon are operating the Austerlitz mine.

John Wilson has completed the annual assessment work on his mining property near Patagonia, this county, and has returned to his home in the city.

Superintendent H. J. Temple of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters in Enpalmé, spent yesterday here on company business, returning south last night.

Wednesday Mark Lulley and Bo Whiteside went out to the Wandering Jew mines, where a force of men has been busy doing assessment work on the Jew mines.

Mr. Jack Kelly of Cananea, one of the liveliest wires in the mining world, accompanied by Mr. Hind, the mining engineer, will return in a few days from the Altar district.

Dr. Win Wylie of Phoenix has been appointed chief surgeon of the Randolph lines to succeed Dr. George A. Goodfellow, whose death occurred at Los Angeles last week.

Joseph I. Cohn, publisher of the Sonora News has this week been visiting points in Sonora in the interest of his weekly. En route south, Mr. Cohn paid this office a pleasant visit.

Work on the Hagan and Ephraim buildings on Morley avenue is progressing nicely, and Messrs. Lulley, Lanier and Loeb expect to occupy their elegant new quarters early next year.

W. E. Baskin the Globe mining man, has again returned to the Altar district where he has valuable gold property. Mr. Baskin knows a good thing when he sees it. He believes he has struck it rich.

Everybody in Nogales will be pleased to know that Mrs. Phil Herold, who was taken to the Sisters' Hospital last Monday, is greatly improved, and hopes are entertained for her speedy complete recovery.

Conductor J. M. Woodrum is again running a train on the Sonora rail road, after an absence of several years in California where he owns a good ranch. His many friends are glad he has returned to his old love-railroad.

Hon. Bo. J. Whiteside, one of the attaches of the constitutional convention, returned home Monday night from Phoenix, the same happy go-lucky, don't-care-a-damn Bo. He stopped over a day in Tucson to visit old friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Ed. Tufts, of New York, head of a big syndicate owning large valuable mining property situated in the states of Sonora and Sinaloa, Mexico, is a guest at the Montezuma hotel, having arrived Thursday night from California. Mr. Peterson, a business associate is with Mr. Tufts. Tonight the gentlemen will leave for Mexico.

J. F. McIntyre, of Cumming & McIntyre, is again circulating among his numerous Nogales friends, after an extended absence in Canada, his old home.

Ed Oaddell, of the Oaddell Mine, Colorado, who is developing a good mining property in this county a short distance from Nogales, is a visitor here, a guest at the National. Recently Mr. Oaddell and his wife returned from a visit to dear old Ireland.

Mr. Thos. Oasanege of Calabasas was a business visitor here Monday. The gentleman is a Republican. He is in favor of the initiative, referendum and recall as endorsed by both the Democratic and Republican platforms of Santa Cruz county at the constitutional election.

President L. Ephraim of the Nogales Water Company is back from California where he had been called on account of the illness of Mrs. Ephraim. We are pleased to say the lady was greatly improved when Mr. Ephraim left for home and will soon again enjoy her usual good health.

Dr. M. H. Barr has typhoid fever. He made a splendid fight to keep from being downed by the fever which he contracted when in Sonora a short time ago, but Sunday last his physicians said he must go to bed, and at this writing is an inmate of the Sisters' Hospital, where everything possible is being done to hasten his complete recovery.

Tuesday night sneak thieves stripped one of the Sonora Auto Company's cars, putting it out of commission. The car had been left standing in front of the garage. Manager H. J. Karns says he'll pay a liberal reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the guilty party or parties. At this writing no arrests have been made.

Robert Rankin, manager of the St. Louis Copper Company's properties a short distance from Nogales, in this county, has made an important strike of high-grade copper-silver ore, hand some specimens of which can be seen at THE BORDER VIDETTE office. Mr. Rankin says the property is showing up fine, and believes will become a paying producer. Bob is an experienced miner.

Mr. Williams Bernstein, nephew of Don Francisco Flores of this city, was a visitor here the forepart of the week, from Cananea, Sonora, where since leaving several years ago he has successfully engaged in the brokerage business. William is a clever young business man. He has many good friends and acquaintances in the border city, all of whom are glad he is prospering.

Colonel W. C. Greene accompanied by a number of friends came over from Cananea Tuesday evening, and the same night continued south to Hermosillo and Guaymas. Those in the party, which traveled in Col. Greene's private car "Verde," were Col. Greene, Manager Rickett of the Cananea Consolidated Copper Company, Superintendent Young and O. Chase, Dr. Rickett's assistant.

Hon. George W. Atkinson, of Calabasas, was a business visitor at the county seat yesterday, from his ranch. Mr. Atkinson has secured control of the splendid ranch adjoining his place known as the Egan Ranch, a lease and optional bond on same from the Egan heirs. This is one of the finest pieces of farming land in Santa Cruz county. The soil is rich and the water plentiful. Already Mr. Atkinson has planted 135 acres to barley and will improve the property.

Great annual sale is now on at The Red House. Great Bargains in all departments.

Two carloads of supplies have arrived from California for the West Coast Mexican Oil Company, and by next Tuesday Superintendent H. E. Stevens will have it out in the company's field where the first derrick will be erected preparatory to commencing to bore for oil. The casing and other supplies ordered from the east will arrive in a couple of weeks. Experienced oil men will be in charge of the operations and those interested will impatiently await results, which if successful mean much for Nogales.

Hon. Bracey Curtis, Republican delegate to the Constitutional Convention from Santa Cruz county, returned home from Phoenix last Sunday night, and is again busy in The First National Bank of Nogales, of which he is cashier. Mr. Curtis, although he refused to sign the constitution, says he is done with politics and will not fight its ratification by the people. The gentleman has a wide circle of friends throughout this county-Democrats and Republicans all of whom are glad to see him home.

Tom Gardner, who with his brother-in-law William Dumont, recently located homesteads in the Santa Cruz valley north of Tubac, was a business visitor in town Thursday. Recently Tom completed a number of wells for himself and neighbors, and now they have an abundance of water with which to irrigate some of the best soil or earth. Pumping plants will be installed and the ground cultivated at once. Tom said W. E. Balcom, one of his neighbors, will soon commence planting wheat at Mesquite Park, where water was recently developed at a depth of only twelve feet.

At Thursday evening's meeting of the Nogales Fire Department, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Capt. L. W. Mix, honorary chief; Bracey Curtis, chief; J. B. Bristol, first assistant chief; Harry J. Karns, second assistant chief. By unanimous vote the department decided to incorporate and build a new department house. After the business meeting the boys enjoyed a Snacker.

L. J. F. Isager, proprietor of the Montezuma hotel of this city and the Santa Rita hotel of Tucson, was a business visitor in the city the forepart of the week. While here he made arrangements to have a number of needed improvements made in that portion of his big hotel occupied by the bar, storeroom and dining room. When the contemplated improvements are completed Messrs. Hardy & Franklin will have large and more comfortable quarters and the Montezuma hotel will possess more attractions for the traveling public.

The Gustetter Reception.

The reception at the elegant home of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Gustetter on Crawford street last Wednesday night was the most brilliant social affair ever given in the line city.

More than one hundred and fifty invitations had been sent out. All who could possibly do so, were there from 8:30 until 11 o'clock the happy bide and groom were surrounded by their host of friends who called to pay their respect and wish them a long, happy, prosperous life as man and wife.

The reception room was handsomely decorated with palms, ferns and roses in great profusion, presenting a most pleasing appearance. The music room where the orchestra was stationed and the delicious punch served, was a bower of floral beauty.

The spacious dining room was beautifully and artistically decorated with ferns and red carnations. Refreshments prepared under the personal direction of Colonel O. T. Jones, were served during the reception, which was perfect in every detail, all those who attended having had a most thoroughly enjoyable time.

The Gustetter reception will long be pleasantly remembered.

New Mining Companies.

This week two new companies have been organized in this city to operate mining property in Santa Cruz county a short distance from Nogales. The names of the incorporations are "Gold Hill Mining & Development Company," and "Ore-Scout Copper Company." The incorporators are J. A. Chapman of Elk City, Kansas, and A. H. Parker of Nogales, Arizona.

Exploration and development work will at once be commenced on the properties of both companies, the work being in charge of Mr. Parker, who will be assisted by Mr. Robert Rankin. Messrs. A. L. Peck and Dr. A. A. Doherty of this city, are largely interested with Messrs. Chapman and Parker, who are well pleased with the prospects of making paying mines out of their newly acquired properties.

Yesterday morning Mr. Chapman left for his home in the east, but will later return to this section to watch the development of his company's property.

Crude Oil Coming Our Way.

In future all crude oil to be used by the Cananea Consolidated Copper Company as fuel, will enter Mexico at this port of entry instead of at Naco, where it has been crossed in the past. From Nogales it will be sent to the great copper camp over the Nogales Cananea branch of the Southern Pacific.

The many consignments of oil, between 100 and 125 carloads a month, will be received at this port and crossed by O. F. Holler & Co., Nogales customs brokers, who have already received many bills of lading for oil which is shipped from California points to Nogales, Arizona, from where it is sent forward to the big copper camp at Cananea.

A number of consignments arrived this week and were immediately taken care of by Mr. Holler, who will personally attend to the handling of the Cananea Copper Company's business at this port.

Swift's Premium Calendar for 1911.

Swift's Premium Calendar for 1911 is styled "The Courtships of American Poetry."

The size of the calendar is 10x15 inches. On each of the four sheets is a beautiful picture in colors. These pictures are the work of noted American artists. There is type matter on them so they are suitable for framing.

Under each picture is the verse from the poem illustrated that fits the action in it.

The subjects are "Priscilla and John Alden," "Hiawatha and Minnehaha," "Maud Muller and The Judge," "Evangeline and Gabriel."

The calendar is now ready for distribution and can be secured by sending one cap from a jar of Swift's Beef Extract, 10 Wool Soap wrappers or 10 cents in stamps or coin to Swift & Company, Calendar Department, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

STATEHOOD LEAGUE

George B. Marsh of Nogales Named to Represent Santa Cruz.

L. P. Smith's last week "The Arizona Statehood League" was formed by constitutional convention delegates, the organization having for its object the adoption by the people of the constitution adopted by the convention.

The league consists of a member from each county in the territory, G. W. P. Hunt, being named as president and Frank DeSouza as secretary. In addition to the committee of fourteen, a sub-committee of five was selected to draft a letter to be sent to every voter in the territory, urging the adoption of the constitution at the polls.

The "Statehood League" consists of the following members: Apache county, Fred Coulter; Cochise county, J. R. Henderson, Graham county, W. T. Webb; Greenlee county, Lamar Cobb; Gila county, Jacob Weinberger; Mohave county, Ed Thompson; Navajo county, William Morgan; Pima county, A. W. Forbes; Pinal county, Elmer Ocker; Santa Cruz county, George B. Marsh; Yuma county, Mulford Winsor, Yavapai county, M. G. Ouniff. No members were named from Maricopa or Coconino county, but will probably be selected later.

The sub-committee to draft the letter to the voters consists of Mulford Winsor, W. T. Webb, Jacob Weinberger, M. G. Ouniff, and a delegate from Maricopa county.

Farewell Banquet.

Last Tuesday evening friends of Don Francisco Flores, federal stamp agent for the Mexican government, with headquarters in the city during the past ten years, tendered him a banquet as an evidence of their respect and appreciation.

During the years Mr. Flores and his most estimable family have made Nogales their home, they have endeared themselves to all our best people on both sides of the international line.

In the conduct of his important office, the income of which was more than one million dollars a year, Francisco Flores has been fair and impartial to all, always using good judgment in the settlement of matters pertaining to fines, etc.

Thoroughly competent, honest, courteous and kind, the departure of Mr. Flores and his family from Nogales, will be deeply regretted by hundreds of social and business friends.

Last Wednesday night Mr. Flores departed for the city of Culiacan, Sinaloa, Mexico, where he will occupy a similar position as that held here. He will later be joined by his family.

Those present at the banquet were: Juan Montañez, Mexican customs collector; Lic. I. G. Martinez, federal district judge; Lic. M. Samperio, federal district attorney; Alberto Olansen, Mayor of Nogales, Sonora; Don Manuel Masarinas, Sr.; Alberto Masarinas, manager Banco de Sonora, Nogales; Carlos Rivera, cashier Banco de Sonora, Nogales; Manuel Padrea, manager Banco Nacional de Mexico; A. E. Sotomayor, cashier Banco Nacional de Mexico, Nogales; Leopoldo Palencia, general inspector federal stamp office; Dr. Ponciano Lopez; Lic. Maslovio Mimiaga, Cirilo Ramirez, capitalist; Manuel Escalada, merchant; Alejandro Carpena, merchant; F. F. Rodriguez, merchant; Alex. O. Villaseñor, merchant; F. Peltier, broker; Henry Levin, customs broker; Alex. Joffroy, customs broker; Julio Carranza, customs broker; E. D. Miller of THE BORDER VIDETTE.

Ed. Peck Dead.

Last Tuesday night Ed Peck, one of the best known pioneer mining men in Arizona, died in this city of heart failure, at the age of 76 years. When he retired the night before he was apparently in the best of health, and news of his death was a shock to his many friends.

Deceased resided here a number of years and was well liked by everybody. His sudden unexpected passing is regretted by all. Thursday forenoon the funeral was held, interment being in the Nogales cemetery.

The Tombstone Prospector says: Ed Peck came to Arizona in 1863. He was a scout under General Geo. Crook and helped materially in wresting the territory from the dominating influence of the savage Apache. Withal he was a most modest man. Some of the exciting scenes in Indian warfare, in which he participated notably the "Pinole Treaty" proposed and carried into execution by King Woolley-would be related by Mr. Peck as if it were an event of every day occurrence.

Ed Peck was a thorough Arizonan. He gave the best that was in him for the advancement and upbuilding of the sun-kissed land, and his many friends in Cochise county, as well as throughout the territory, will read with sorrow this announcement of his death. He was 76 years of age when, apparently without the slightest suffering, physically or mentally, he went to his reward.

Although Ed. Peck had an exceedingly strenuous career, it can truthfully be said of him that

"His life was gentle,
And the elements so mixed in him
That Nature might stand up before
The world and say:
This was a man."
